

Rangi Ruru
Girls' School

Position Description – Te Reo Māori

Our Mission

To inspire, challenge and empower girls to release their potential through a diverse range of quality experiences

Position: Teacher – Te Reo Māori – Full time

Responsible to: Head of Learning Area
Leader of Learning

Key Tasks

To provide learning opportunities that equip students to be confident, connected, innovative and resourceful learners.

To teach Te Reo to Years 9-13

To use effective teaching and learning strategies that focus on knowing and engaging learners.

To contribute to the development and sharing of quality teaching and learning strategies and programmes of learning.

To facilitate learning in an inclusive and positive environment that responds to the needs and passions of all learners.

To be responsible for the progression in learning and assessment of Learning

To attend relevant meetings and engage in professional learning opportunities.

To effectively report on student achievement to parents/caregivers.

To contribute to the pastoral care and mentoring of students by being a Form Tutor

To contribute to the co-curricular life of the school

Person Specification

- Be energetic and enthusiastic.
- Be able to relate easily with students and colleagues and develop strong learning relationships.
- Have the ability to collaborate effectively as part of a strong team.
- Have knowledge of current educational thinking and developments
- Have a thorough understanding of the NZ Curriculum, NCEA and Scholarship
- A competent user of ICT tools and strategies to enhance learning.
- Value professional learning opportunities and be committed to continued development; by engaging in on going reflection focused on student outcomes, framed by the Teaching as Inquiry/Spiral of Inquiry cycle.
- Effective personal management skills.
- Empathy with and adherence to the Rangi Ruru values (Respect, Aroha, eNthusiasm, eNdeavour, Integrity)